Dear Friends,

It is an honor to welcome you to the National Day of Solidarity Against AAPI Hate in Washington, D.C. Thank you to the organizers and volunteers for making this event possible.

Diversity is the Commonwealth's greatest strength, and this event is an important opportunity to highlight the rich, cultural diversity of our Commonwealth. The 87th District, which I am proud to represent in the Virginia General Assembly, is also home to the Washington Dulles International Airport. This was my mother's port of entry when she immigrated from India in the late 1970's. As the first Indian American ever elected to the Virginia House of Delegates, I am proud to have co-founded the Virginia AAPI Caucus to help and elevate the voices of the AAPI community while addressing the rising tide of hate against Asian Americans.

As you know, May is AAPI Heritage month and for me it's an opportunity to celebrate the hundreds of thousands of AAPI Virginians who contribute every day to the success of our Commonwealth. We owe a lot to the AAPI leaders of the past who have paved the way for people like me.

Seeing Virginians dedicate themselves to bettering their community reminds me of how proud I am to serve as your delegate in the Virginia General Assembly.

Sincerely,
